Biography

A certified facilitator since 2001, Jody brings to forum groups a grounded perspective he has acquired from a decade and a half of real-world executive experience in international business development, management and entrepreneurship.

Jody earned a degree in economics from the University of London (U.K.). He began his business career in textile manufacturing and distribution with Winner Garment Manufacturing Corporation and Concord Benefit Enterprises in Indonesia, directing marketing, business development and international expansion strategy. Today, he is CEO of Kushendy Asribusana in Indonesia.

Jody is a founding member of the Young Entrepreneurs' Organization (YEO) Indonesia Chapter, where he has served as communication chair, learning chair, membership chair and chapter president. During his tenure on the International Forum Committee, he has held the positions of YEO Area Director for north Asia and later, YEO Area Director of southeast Asia. In his native Indonesia, Jody has been on the board of the British Chamber of Commerce Indonesia since 2001 and is a founding member and Executive Chairman of the Indonesian Entrepreneur Development Foundation

Jody is a PADI certified dive master. His passion for outdoor sports extends from scuba diving to cross country mountain cycling, squash and badminton. He has participated in and completed the Action Asia Challenge (an adventure race involving a number of sporting disciplines ranging from trail running and kayaking to rock-climbing and mountain biking) in Vietnam and Singapore. Jody also enjoys photography and develops his own photographs.

Born in Indonesia, raised in Hong Kong and educated in the U.K., Jody is fluent in Indonesian, Cantonese and English. He lives with his wife and three young children in Jakarta.
